Welcome to The Hair Alchemist!

I'm Tasha, a hairstylist, Modern Blonde Specialist, and cocktail enthusiast serving the Waterloo Region and Guelph area from my one-on-one hair studio in the cozy and easily accessible heart of Blair.

Located inside a charming, peaceful spa, The Hair Alchemist was born out of the realization that the conventional salon experience just wasn't working for either myself or my guests anymore. The environment was loud and hectic, my clients were being shuffled between the hands of various assistants because I was required to book multiple clients at once, and miscommunication was rampant under the unrealistic time constraints.

As an artist, I needed the time to conduct thorough consultations to fully understand my guests' needs, and bring their vision to life, and they needed a place to relax where they could trust they would be heard and taken care of.

I knew the only way to accomplish this was by being one-on-one with my clients where I could solely care for their needs from start to finish and focus on phenomenal hair crafted with a detail-oriented eye. All while they sit back, relax, and prioritize relaxation and self-care.

I believe I've finally achieved that ideal, and I couldn't be more proud of the truly unique salon experience I've cultivated at The Hair Alchemist.

When I'm not engrossed in thinking of how to evolve the guest experience at the studio, however, you'll often find taking my dog around the walking paths near our house, or exploring the KW food scene with my boyfriend as we're both huge foodies. So if you're wondering where to find the tastiest eats and coolest cocktails within an hour of Cambridge, I've got you.

Truthfully, though, while I enjoy a night out, and even knocking a new travel destination off my bucket list now and then, more often than not I am at home focusing on my own self-care... For me that's a night of video games, bubble baths, medical dramas, true crime, and trashy reality TV.

But enough about me. Let's get focused on taking care of you!

Your appointment is booked. You've submitted the Digital Consultation.

especially by a new stylist?

That won't happen here.

Through my thorough and innovative consultation process, you'll be 100% confident, relaxed, and excited from start to finish.

The best part?

A Beauty Lifestyle Consultation doesn't just happen at the first visit.
At every appointment going forward, we'll re-evaluate your hair and our plan with a Beauty Lifestyle Reconnection Consultation.

This will ensure that you're always looking your best, feeling completely refreshed, and never bored with your look.

I can't wait for us to get started.
See you at the studio!

FAQ

Should I have clean or dirty hair for my appointment?

I always recommend arriving for your appointment with clean, dry hair, especially when it's my first time working with your hair.

What payment methods do you accept?

I accept cash, e-Transfer, debit, Visa, Mastercard, and American Express.

I'm coming in for a long service. Can I bring food and drinks?

Absolutely! Bring anything you might want or need for the duration of your service. That said, I provide all sorts of complimentary drinks and snacks for you to enjoy.

Can I bring my child, partner, or friend to my appointment?

Generally speaking this is not advised. The studio is petite so unless the other person is your ride, you should make plans to meet after your appointment instead.

Additionally, there are a lot of sharp tools and easily accessible chemicals that a child could easily get into if not supervised. Children should only be in the studio if they are receiving services.

What is your Cancellation Policy?

To provide the fairest scheduling options and maximum availability to all my guests, I require a minimum of 48 hours notice to cancel or reschedule an appointment. Cancelling or rescheduling with less than 48 hours notice, or no showing an appointment, will result in a Cancellation Fee. Payment of any outstanding Cancellation Fees will be required before a new appointment can be scheduled.

For a the full policy and a breakdown of fees, please visit my website's FAQ page.
